DANIELLE O'CONNOR AKIYAMA

COMBINING IMPRESSIONISM AND ABSTRACTION, PHILOSOPHY AND AESTHETICS, INNER RADIANCE AND EXTERNAL
ILLUMINATION, DANIELLE HAS CREATED A COLLECTION OF SURPASSING BEAUTY.

Deeply personal and profound, Danielle's work continues to delight and inspire us with its uplifting message of hope. The loose formal structure, fusion of eastern and western techniques and unique vocabulary of signs and symbols make Danielle's work both instantly recognisable and utterly irresistible.
