Doug Hyde

Doug's heart-warming new collection is a vibrant celebration of love and friendship, hope and dreams, and above all, of being back...

Together
Again.

Doug's work has been enriching the lives of collectors for many years...

He has built a formidable reputation as the man behind 'the smile', one of the most iconic artworks of the 21st century and he was named in a BBC news broadcast as the most popular living artist in the UK. His uplifting and inspiring original paintings, sculpture and limited editions have become highly sought-after collectors' items, and he has been the subject of numerous books and articles.
